RETIREMENT MESSAGE LIEUTENANT COLONEL BRUNO LORD, CD

LCol Lord will be retiring on September the 9th, 2018 after more than 35 years of service since he has accepted an engineer position within the federal public service.

LCol Lord was born in Montréal, Québec. He was enlisted in the Canadian Forces in 1983 and completed a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering at the Royal Military College of Canada in Kingston in 1988. Once his training was completed within the Electrical and Mechanical Engineering branch, he started his career at 202 Workshop Depot and was then posted to 5 Service Battalion as the commander of the FRG platoon. He then served with the 12^e Régiment blindé du Canada as the maintenance officer of the regiment and, in 1994, came back to 5 Service Battalion as the Operations officer.

In 1997, he joins the Canadian Forces School of Electrical and Mechanical Engineering in Borden as the Deputy Commanding Officer of regimental coy and makes a short stay at 5 ASG in Montréal in 1999. Promoted to major in 2000, he returns at 202 Workshop Depot as the Strategic Planning Officer for a period of three years. He then joins 5 Service Battalion as OC of maintenance coy in 2003. After only a few weeks, Maj Lord is appointed as acting G4 at 5 CMBG for a year before completing his command tour in August 2005.

Subsequently, he occupies a variety of positions in Montréal: G4 LFQA, G3 Task LFQA and G3 5 ASG, until his promotion to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in 2008 when he was posted to the National Capital Region for the first time. He was then employed as a team leader for the fleet management team of the wheeled LAV for a period of two years and makes a comeback at 5 ASG as Chief of Staff of the Field Formation in summer 2010. In 2012, he is posted as Deputy Commanding Officer of 2 CDSG and in 2014 was posted to 202 Workshop Depot once more as the Deputy Commanding Officer.

He has served in Croatia with the UNPROFOR as Commander of the Advanced Logistics Group of the Canadian contingent in Ploče in 1993 and in ex-Yugoslavia with the IFOR as the Operations Officer of the NSE of the multinational Brigade of Canada in 1996. He has completed the military training at the Canadian Land Force Command and Staff College in Kingston in 1999.

LCol Lord has three children: Alexis, Francis, and Victoria.

A luncheon for his DWD will be held on Thursday September 6th 2018 at the Officer's Mess on the Longue-Pointe Garisson at 11h30 hrs for a cost of 25$ wine included. LCol Lord wishes this event to be held as a roast so prepare your best stories and anecdotes. Please confirm your attendance and pay your meal to the event coordinator, Capt Carrier (guillaume.carrier@forces.gc.ca) no later than the 28th of August 2018. You can also forward any stories, anecdotes or photos at the same address.
