ANNONCE DE RETRAITE

Cpl Bélanger, PJR, CD

Corporal Paul Bélanger from St-Jérôme, Qc joined the Canadian Forces on June 21 1996. He began his career at CFLRS Saint-Jean, QC. After completing his basic training in July of 1997 he was posted to 1R22R as an infantryman. He deployed to Montreal for the "Crise du Verglas" in January 1998, to Bosnia and Herzegovina from December 1999 to March 2000, to Kabul from February to August of 2004 and to Kandahar from December 2006 to July 2007. He put an end to his infantry role in August 2011 to pursue a career as a weapon technicians for the Electrical and Mechanical Engineers. Following his qualification in April 2013 he was posted to 5 Service Battalion where he remained until his retirement. After more than 23 years of service for his country, Corporal Bélanger will retire in Shannon where he lives with his spouse Marie-Pier and his daughter Hélène. Paul is looking forward to completing many projects, such as his wish to share his passion for fly fishing with others.

There will be a small luncheon with his peers at 11h30 the 17 of July 2019, date of his official release, at Centre Castor, in Valcartier, to celebrate his last day of service in the CF.
