

RCEME GEMRC

RETIREMENT MESSAGE

Cpl Jardine

After 12 plus years of loyal service to the Canadian Armed Forces (CAF), Corporal Brett Jardine will retire on 15 Jan 2021.

Brett joined the CAF in 2008 from his home town of Miramichi, NB and was soon posted to CFB Gagetown where he commenced his Basic Military Officer Qualification on route to becoming a Naval Warfare Officer. In 2012, Brett graduated Saint Thomas University with a Bachelor of Arts degree and was posted to the Naval Training Development Centre in CFB Esquimalt to commence his training as a Naval Officer.

After a short year and combined 63 days at sea, training on PCT CARIBOU, COUGAR and GRIZZLY, Brett's career took a different path, where he was fortunate to join the RCEME Corps as a Vehicle Technician in 2013. Brett remained in Esquimalt for OJE awaiting his DP1 in Borden. Following his DP1 and various OJT opportunities between Esquimalt, Shilo and Edmonton, he was posted to 19 Wing Comox Base Maint in 2015 awaiting his DP2.

Arte et Marte

RCEME GEMRC

Brett has since planted roots here in the Comox Valley with his wife Nicole and son Nicholas and has passionately pursued an opportunity as a carpenter apprentice in the area.

Due to the COVID restrictions in place, there will be no formal DWD ceremony. Should you like to send any congratulatory messages, anecdotes and best wishes, please send them to christopher.zizek@forces.gc.ca and they will be presented to him upon his release.

Arte et Marte